Did You Know?

Some Pride Flag Facts.

Original 8-stripe Pride Flag

In 1978, Gilbert Baker created the original pride flag, with eight horizontal stripes. Each band of color celebrates a different attribute or characteristic. The eight colors (from top to bottom) are: Hot Pink for sexuality, Red for life, Orange for healing, Yellow for sunlight, Green for nature, Turquoise for magic, Blue for serenity, and Violet for spirit.

6-stripe Pride Flag

In 1979, the two colors of Hot Pink and Turquoise were dropped, thus creating the well-recognized 6-striped Pride Flag. This flag with the Red, Orange, Yellow, Green, Blue, and Violet horizontal stripes remains a popular symbol.

Philadelphia Pride Flag

In 2017, a new interpretation of the Pride Flag emerged. Named for the city where it was first created, the Philadelphia flag added stripes of Black and Brown to the previous six color, thus better representing and advocating for LGBTQA+ people of color.

Progress Flag

Not long afterward in 2018, the Progress Pride Flag gained prominence in community. This new edition of the Pride Flag has colors to represent both trans people and LGBTQA+ community, the Progress Flag - with the arrows to represent inclusion and progression is a great way to indicate pride for multiple identities. The five arrows (from left to right) are White, Pink, and Light Blue for transgender individuals and Brown and black for people of color.
